VI.—NEW COLLATION OF PARISINUS 7900 A FOR THE EPISTLES OF HORACE.

Certain variations from Keller and Holder's collation of Parisinus 7900 A, as given in their critical edition of the Odes and Epodes of Horace (1899), were printed in A. J. P., Vol. XXIII, No. 1. For the sake of completeness the following variations for the Epistles are now printed. It is unlikely that a second edition of the Epistles will be forthcoming soon. The ms. does not contain the Satires and gives only part of the first book of the Epistles.
